

EUSI International Symposium

"The EU, Asia and Japan: Frontiers of European External Relations"

26-27 March 2011

- European Union Studies Institute in Tokyo (EUSI)
- Keio-Hitotsubashi: Support Project for Strategic University Collaborations
- Keio University

Programme

Saturday, 26 March, 2011

Distance Learning Room (B4F), South Building (No. 15 on the map)

Mita Campus, Keio University

Keynote Speech: 13:00- 13:30

Session 1: 13:30 - 15:15

"The Future of EU-Asia Relations"

"Asia's global irrelevance? What is this region faced by Europe?"

"Coherence of European Union Foreign Policy after Lisbon: How Effective?"

Coffee Break: 15:15 – 15:45

Session 2: 15:45 – 18:15

"The EU's External Relations and the Rise of Asia"

"Strategic Partnerships: The EU's Struggle against Global Irrelevance"

"The EU's Soft Power on ASEAN"

"The EU as a Power in Asia and in the World: A View from Japan"

Dinner

Sunday, 27 March, 2011

Distance Learning Room (B4F), South Building (No. 15 on the map)

Mita Campus, Keio University

Session 3: 10:30-12:15

"The EU's Trade Relationships with Asia"

"The EU's Trade Policy towards East and Southeast Asia"

"Can the EU trade policy be more strategic? The Lisbon Treaty and its implication for Asia "

Lunch

Session 4 (in Japanese): 14:00- 16:30

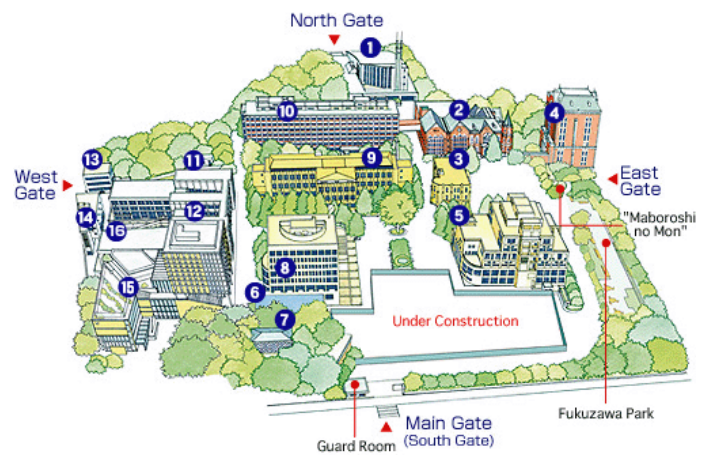

"Historical Perspectives on the Relationship between Europe and Asia"

"The Globalization of the Western Alliance: NATO, SEATO, Japan and the Cold War in Asia, 1950-1955"

"What Lessons We Learn from the Japan-EC/EU Trade Negotiations and Conflicts: EU's Relations with Japan, Korea, and China"

"The EU-China-Taiwan Triangle: the Establishment of Official Relations and European Approaches to the Question of China"

Practical Information: